Guide Price £385,000, Freehold

Property Description

Positioned only a few hundred yards from the centre of one of the most popular villages in the North Cotswolds, this next to end terraced, three storey, two double bed roomed cottage retreat is perfect for those looking for a main or a second home and should be viewed internally to be fully appreciated.

The open-plan living area on the ground floor features a homely woodburning stove set in to an original Cotswold stone fireplace, a flagstone floor, all blending stylishly with the bespoke fitted kitchen with granite worktops and built-in appliances.

There is a double bedroom and a contemporary style bathroom on the first floor and a large through master bedroom on the second floor enjoying excellent views over treescape towards distant countryside. Both bedrooms have exposed floor boards and some exposed beams. Additional character has been added with pencil lighting to the winding stairwell.

The property is warmed with gas fired central heating from a combination boiler and has the advantage of a two tiered rear garden with a flagged patio and enclosed lawn.

This part of Park Road is very close to the village green in the centre of the village where there is a good quality village store and the adjacent Blockley Cafe which doubles as a fine dining restaurant several evenings a week. The village is located midway between the Cotswold cafe society of Chipping Campden and the more traditional market town of Moreton-in-Marsh where there are railway links to Oxford and London Paddington.
