Guide Price £450,000, Freehold

Property Description

Positioned on a fifth of an acre plot in a truly rural location with open views to both front and rear over countryside, this semi-detached two storey, three bedroom country villa is one of only four similar properties and offers every opportunity for those looking to improve a property to their own requirements.

The property is believed to date from the 1920's and has been occupied by the same family for the last 56 years. The property is built of traditional Cotswold stone and the double fronted accommodation allows for a separate lounge and dining room, a kitchen and utility room, a rear hallway and at first floor level there are three bedrooms and a bathroom/w.c.

The property is positioned on the very outskirts of Moreton-in-Marsh, just before Evenlode Main. The town has a strategically important location of where the Fosseway (A429) crosses the A44 with its famous tree-lined High Street, many artisan shops, hostels and restaurants, St David's Primary School and the town is within the catchment area for Chipping Campden Secondary School. Moreton-in-Marsh has the all important railway station with links to Oxford and London Paddington.
