Property Description

Nestling in a quiet residential back water away from main stream traffic, yet only a few hundred yards on a level position from the centre of this famous North Cotswold market town, this end terrace, two storey, two double bedroom town house is perfect for single persons or young couples alike and is well worthy of inspection.

The property has gas fired central heating, UPVC double glazing, smart modern bathroom and a modern fitted kitchen with a built in oven and hob, although small, the enclosed rear garden is very private and is screened by some attractive blue cedar trees.

In St. James Court itself, the property has its own garage immediately opposite the property with a single parking space in front.

To the side there is a pathway leading to Stow Road and is only a short walk from the Aldi supermarket, Fosseyway Garden Centre, two doctors surgeries and the community hospital. The town centre is approximately 1/4 of a mile away where there are coffee shops, hostelrys and restaurants on one of the most famous tree-lined High Streets in the North Cotswolds.
